

The week in Berlin has been one of the most beautiful experiences of my life. The activity i liked more was the painting at the Ronald McDonald House. When we went there, the leader of that place explained us that they host ill children's parents and try to make them happier. The work we had to do was painting 3 floors of that house. We started covering the parts we didn't need to paint, then we painted the ceiling and the floor. It has been quite tiring but we had a lot of fun and, at the end, i felt like i did help that association. I will try to find some volunteer jobs in my city, to feel again those emotions.
